1. [REDACTED] 1950, 700 to 900 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some of which had tank and artillery insignia, were observed in the barracks on the Meissen-Grossenhain road, about 5 km from Meissen (N 52/C 09).

2. About 70 percent of the windows in the northern section of the barracks were illuminated during the evening, but the southern section was dark. Motor vehicles at the barracks [REDACTED]

- * [REDACTED] comment. The 95th Tank Regt and a Mtrcl Bn of the 9th Tank Div are believed to be stationed in the barracks on the road to Grossenhain. The southern section is the Artillery Kaserne, and the northern section is the Bonitzsch Kaserne. The report indicates that most of the troops of these units were still at the post at the beginning of [REDACTED] 1950. In conflict with this information on Meissen, other reports state that the units of the 9th Tank Div in Riesa and Oschatz left for Koenigsbrueck between [REDACTED]
